HUNTSVILLE - When the premier comes to town, there's lots to talk about.

Ontario Premier Doug Ford was in Muskoka March 1 on a whirlwind tour around the riding; he visited the Kimberly Clark facility in Huntsville, spoke with media briefly during a stop at Westside Fish and Chips and appeared on YourTV Muskoka's Queen's Park Report.

The premier's trip included a spaghetti dinner at Bracebridge's Royal Canadian Legion Branch 161.

He fielded numerous media questions during the Queen's
